

From Europe With Love

A 6 days romantic getaway by the shores and former European colonies.

Let there be love !

In our attempt to spur love between two people, we have shown our extra care and thoughts to offer this pampered and comfortable honeymoon package of 6 days and 5 nights. Whether it is the relaxations of spas, amazement of temple architecture and ancient stories about the temples, reverence and prayers at a temple, fun on the beach, intimacy in exclusive evening walks, romantic candle lit and special chef-mastered dinners with wines, we have arranged it all just so that we could enhance your love.

In addition to that, we also present ways with which you can explore and learn the historical and cultural aspects of two separate former European colonies who had established their base in India. We will visit these relics (like, many structures, houses and buildings) and guide you through the history and anecdotes; also, we delve in to their cultural influence in to the Indian traditions, that has transformed some of the locals and lifestyles in this region. So, come with us to blend the exploration of European colonies and enjoy the honeymoon in a colonial style in an all inclusive romantic getaway package.

The Getaway

Day 1 Chennai : Embark on the journey of love. We begin the day easy at your comfortable pace after a lovely wholesome breakfast. Visit the famous Kapaleshwara temple and seek the blessings. Follow up with an exploration of a temple architecture of a nearby temple - Parthasarathy swami. After a quick south Indian lunch, we take an enjoyable walk through the city centre of Mylapore. We sweeten the evening by offering a welcome couple massage and a romantic Dinner at overnight at Leela Palace Hotel, Chennai.

Day 2: After a leisure breakfast, we take a two-hour drive to coastal town of Mahabalipuram with lots of splendid sculptures and intricate details from the Hindu epic of Mahabharata. We guide you through the open air sculpture Arjuna's penance and a huge relief carved on two rocks of 43 feet high - a UNESCO designated world heritage sight. A break for lunch, we set you a lovely meal at a restaurant by the beach to relish the food along with the breeze and sounds of waves hitting the shore. Continuing post-lunch, we visit the Shore temple, that is carved from granite. Take a few moments to admire the rock cut reliefs and sculptures. Driving by the seaside, approximately 2 hours , moving further down to Pondicherry, our second stop of our tour. Arriving and checking in at the hotel Palaise de Mahe in Pondicherry, we arrange another lovely dinner and overnight stay.

Day 3: We start the day, with the fusion of Indian and French inspired breakfast, just like the town. Explore the pre-independence French colony in India, Pondicherry, on foot. Slowly wander through the day on your own time. Dining a special, chef-inspired French cuisine and with a bottle of Cabernet Sauvignon, to blend the romance and ecstasy in the evening while spending the second night over in Pondicherry.

Day 4: After an early breakfast, we head towards an erstwhile Danish colony/town, Tranquebar. Arrive by mid day and check-in at a delightful colonial style heritage hotel - the bungalow on the beach. Unwind and soak in the sun. Visit the Dansborg fort and archaeological museum. As the heat eases, by evening, take a walk by the beach, let the waves touch the bare feet and cool off while playing and swimming by the beach (or in the pool). Relish a chef-mastered special dinner along with an (optional) wine, and a lovely night at Bungalow on the beach.

Day 5: If interested, couples could opt to spend some time in the morning at the beach or in the pool, and also watch the fishermen sail away to the high seas for their daily catch. After a relaxed breakfast, while the sun is bright and sunny, visit the Governors Bungalow, Masilamani Nathar temple and some of the old churches, and in between, take some time to enjoy an authentic Tamil Nadu cuisine for lunch. Later, after the day gives way to evening, spend a relaxing night at the Bungalow.

Day 6. After a relaxed breakfast, we drive to Trichy (3.5hours away) to fly to Chennai, and bid adieu to return home, with the end of a romantic experience through a colonial tour in India.
